6 DAVID BOLLINGER ,

Case No. 2:98-cv-01263-MMD-PAL

7 Petitioner,

8 v.

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO
VACATE STAY AND REOPEN CAPITAL
HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDING
(ECF NO. 290)

9 WILLIAM GITTERE , et al.,

10 Respondents.
11

12 This capital habeas corpus action was stayed, pending proceedings in state court,
13 on September 10, 2019. (ECF No. 285.) On March 9, 2020, Petitioner David Bollinger filed
14 a motion to vacate stay and reopen capital habeas corpus proceeding ("Motion"). (ECF 15 No. 290.) Petitioner represents in his Motion that the state-court proceedings have 16 concluded. (Id.) Respondents filed a notice of non-opposition to Petitioner's Motion on 17 March 23, 2020. (ECF No. 291.) Therefore, the Court finds good case to grant the motion
18 to lift the stay and reopen this action and will set a schedule for further proceedings.

19 It is therefore ordered that Petitioner's motion to vacate stay and reopen capital
20 habeas corpus proceeding (ECF No. 290) is granted. The stay of this action is lifted. The 21 Clerk of the Court is directed to update the docket accordingly.

22 It is further ordered that the following schedule will govern further proceedings in 23 this action:

24 Response to Claim 7(D): Respondents will have 90 days from the date of this order
25 to file a supplemental answer or other response to Petitioner's Claim 7(D).

26 Reply and Response to Reply: Petitioner will have 60 days following the filing of a
27 supplemental answer to file a reply. Respondents will thereafter have 45 days following 28 the filing of a reply to file a response to the reply.

1 Briefing of Motion to Dismiss: If Respondents file a motion to dismiss, Petitioner will
2 have 60 days following the filing of the motion to file a response to the motion.
3 Respondents will thereafter have 45 days following the filing of the response to file a reply.

4 Discovery: If Petitioner wishes to move for leave to conduct discovery, Petitioner
5 must file such motion concurrently with, but separate from, the response to Respondents'
6 motion to dismiss or the reply to Respondents' supplemental answer. Any motion for leave
7 to conduct discovery filed by Petitioner before that time may be considered premature,
8 and may be denied, without prejudice, on that basis. Respondents must file a response to 9 any such motion concurrently with, but separate from, their reply in support of their motion
10 to dismiss or their response to Petitioner's reply. Thereafter, Petitioner will have 20 days
11 to file a reply in support of the motion for leave to conduct discovery.

12 Evidentiary Hearing: If Petitioner wishes to request an evidentiary hearing,
13 Petitioner must file a motion for an evidentiary hearing concurrently with, but separate
14 from, the response to Respondents' motion to dismiss or the reply to Respondents'
15 supplemental answer. Any motion for an evidentiary hearing filed by Petitioner before that 16 time may be considered premature, and may be denied, without prejudice, on that basis.
17 The motion for an evidentiary hearing must specifically address why an evidentiary hearing
18 is required and must meet the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 2254(e). The motion must state 19 whether an evidentiary hearing was held in state court, and, if so, where the transcript is 20 located in the record. If Petitioner files a motion for an evidentiary hearing, Respondents 21 must file a response to that motion concurrently with, but separate from, their reply in 22 support of their motion to dismiss or their response to Petitioner's reply. Thereafter,
23 Petitioner will have 20 days to file a reply in support of the motion for an evidentiary
24 hearing.

25 DATED THIS 31st day of March 2020.
